

The United Benefice of Coxheath, East Farleigh Hunton, Linton and West Farleigh

Overview of the Benefice and the Role.

The United Benefice of Coxheath, East Farleigh, Hunton, Linton, and West Farleigh comprises five churches. Each church brings its own unique challenges and styles, contributing to the diverse character of the Benefice.

The Rector holds responsibility for supporting and overseeing all five churches within the Benefice. This wide-ranging remit requires the Rector to ensure cohesive leadership across the parishes, while also addressing the individual needs and operational differences of each church.

Given the scale and variety of duties involved in managing the Benefice, the Rector requires dedicated assistance. This support is essential to guarantee the efficient management of daily administrative tasks throughout all five churches. Furthermore, personal support for the Rector is crucial in maintaining effective leadership and smooth day-to-day operations.

The ideal candidate for this role will demonstrate exceptional efficiency and possess organisational and planning skills. They will be approachable and supportive, ready to assist and understand the needs of everyone they interact with throughout the Benefice.
